

2020 Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts™
Children and Youth Sidewalk Sale Wednesday, July 8, 2020

Entry Deadline: June 19, 2020

OVERVIEW

The Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts (CPFA) was founded in 1966 as a joint effort of Penn State University's College of Arts and Architecture and the State College Chamber of Commerce. Drawing over 100,000 people to State College each summer, the Festival includes, in addition to Children and Youth Day, the nationally recognized Sidewalk Sale and Exhibition, a juried gallery exhibition, educational opportunities, and music, dance and theatrical performances in a variety of outdoor and indoor venues.

Young people are bursting with artistic energy. The Children and Youth Sidewalk Sale of the Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts is a fun way for boys and girls to express themselves visually. The Children and Youth Sidewalk Sale encourages the creative growth of young people. We believe that they can develop their artistic potential through personal expression in individually crafted, original objects.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Central Pennsylvania Festival of the Arts is to celebrate the arts with presentations of diverse, high-quality visual and performing arts through the cooperative volunteer support of the community and the Pennsylvania State University. The essence of this organization is the enrichment and education of the audience, grounded in personal interaction between artist and audience.

RULES

1. All artists must be between the ages 8 and 18 and live or have relatives living in any of the centrally located Pennsylvania counties (Blair, Centre, Clearfield, Clinton, Huntingdon, Mifflin and Union) to participate.
2. The artist must design and make all work. Work made from kits is not permitted. This includes items such as balloon yo-yos.
3. Artists must personally attend to their booths and must be present during the entire day. Representatives, including family members, may NOT attend in place of the artist.
4. Only items described in the application or shown in submitted photographs may be displayed.
5. Artists may not use their booths to display samples of items to be delivered later. Sales should be on a "cash and carry" basis.
6. All artwork must be original.
7. The CPFA reserves the right to request the removal of work that is not consistent with the original application or that is in violation of CPFA rules. Failure to comply with a request to remove work may jeopardize the right to participate in future CPFA activities.

8. The following are absolutely prohibited:

- Services such as face painting, hair braiding, nail painting or flower arranging; on-site personalization and monogramming of work.
- The sale of food
- The sale of plants
- Use of licensed, trademarked, or copyrighted characters or names (e.g., no use in any way of the Penn State name, the Nittany Lion, Disney, or other animated characters, team logos or similar names on any artwork or craft); Trademarks and logos should not be intact on products made from recycled materials.
- The sale of offensive and defensive weapons, including toys and facsimiles, is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, the sale of rubber band guns, pop-guns, swords, shields, light sabers, bows and arrows, items that launch a projectile, and Nerf weapons.
- Games involving prize-winning or raffles;
- Activities that require the purchaser to assemble the product;
- Additions to applications after submission
- Commercial banners hanging in artists' booths

BOOTH INFORMATION

1. Booths should be simple and functional.
2. Booths are ten feet wide. They may not extend more than eight feet into the street.
3. Booth set-up and tear-down should take no longer than one hour with minimal adult help.
4. Each artist must provide a table, chairs, and any other materials necessary for display.
5. Space is assigned based on postmark or delivery date of completed application.
6. If you wish to have your booth next to a friend's booth, you must submit your applications in the same envelope.

7. THE CPFA OFFICE WILL SEND YOU A CONFIRMATION PACKET AND PARKING PASS AFTER JULY 1, 2020. PLEASE DO NOT CALL THE FESTIVAL OFFICE REGARDING YOUR APPLICATION STATUS BEFORE THAT DATE.

TENTS

We must keep the center of the street free of obstructions for emergency vehicle access. Booths may not extend more than eight feet from the curb line into the center of South Allen Street. We will be able to accommodate a limited number of 10' by 10' tents, as long as they do not extend more than eight feet into the street. In other words, the rear tent legs will have to be placed on the sidewalk or grass behind the booth.

Ten by ten tents will not fit in certain spots because there are obstructions, such as street lights, signs, and trees, which prevent a tent from being moved back the required two feet. Accordingly, please indicate on your application if you intend to bring a ten by ten tent. The CPFA does not provide tables, chairs, or tents. Each exhibitor is responsible for his or her own display.

Please do not use a tent that promotes a business or organization.
